Leland Yee, who is running for re-election in a heavily Democratic district, said that if he had a gun in his office when he was arrested for running a gun-trafficking ring, he would have shot himself to avoid going to jail. Yee was arrested this week on federal charges of conspiring to deal firearms without a license and engaging in a scheme to funnel money from illegal arms sales to overseas buyers. During an interview on Wednesday, Yee said that he has no regrets about his past decisions, even though they have led to his indictment. "When I was in my political career, I was for the interests of the people," Yee said. "And I believe we needed to have a political career, for our own protection. "I don't regret anything that I've done," he continued. "If I had a gun in my office, I would have shot myself." Asked what he would do if he was offered the chance to plea to the charges and avoid going to trial, Yee said he would not have accepted such an offer. a1d647c40b

We actually went to your party and sat at the same table as your friend, Kari Winther. I met you for the first time at the party. I hope all is well with you and your family. I have been doing well myself. I had a really good time in Portland and really wanted to come back. I am working hard at getting my MBA, so I am actually enrolled for fall. I wanted to give you a call and say hi and let you know how things are going for me. I would really like to catch up and I am really looking forward to seeing you next year. I miss Portland and I am so glad I came this year. I will be in school in Houston starting next semester. I have seen a lot of my old friends, so I will be in Houston over the summer and then back to Portland for a little while to see my friends. I have lots of good things going for me. I have really been working hard on my MBA. I feel really good about it so far and I have a lot of motivation for the next 4 months. It will be a different experience in Houston, but it will be fun. I will be in town this week from Portland for a while and would love to catch up. Please let me know when you are free. I have
