Ears Audio Toolkit [32/64bit]

Ears Audio Toolkit Description: Ears Audio Toolkit helps users find their favorite songs and playlists by finding related songs in your personal collection and the millions of songs available on the internet. It's simple. All you have to do is drag and drop songs from the sidebar to the equalizer (or press the down button). It will automatically suggest the best track based on your musical preference. You can also drag and drop videos. When your playlist is complete, just click save to save it to your Ears library. Ears Audio Toolkit was added by sigmaht in Jun 27, 2015. The version you're using now is 0.4.1, built on April 27, 2015 and is available for download from our website. The latest version of the extension is available here. NigelOct 10, 2016 Maybe the most useful extension I've ever used on chrome. It allows you to drag and drop songs into an equalizer which takes in your music collection and allows you to play a selection of songs. I have to say that it works perfectly and is very responsive. The only issue I have had is that it doesn't play music from sd card, but I can live with that as all my music is stored on my drive.
